A good many of them, indeed, are going still further mpon the aforesaid Jeff to have the troops withdrawn at once.

We have no confidence in the word of Fovernor Harda, and believe that the transfer of a portion of Pillow's command from New Madrid to Hickman, part of a well considered plan to precipitate Kentacky into a state of bloody etrile and anarchy. The invasion, we think, has been precipitated comments by the discouraging prospect opening out to the rebels in M.ssourt. McCullough, Fillow, and Hardse have undoubtedly been imposed upon by Jackson, Reynelds. 6. Co. McCullough te retiring in night desguast from the southwest into Arkansas, and Pillow, deceived in regard to the richness, in provender and recruits, of the New Madrid ewamps, turns a longing eye regard to the richness, in provender and recruits, of the New Madrid swamps, turns a longing eye to the fat and populous regions of Kentucky, the beauty of the view being enhanced, no doubt, by the comissous threatest and of the view being enhanced, no doubt, by the comissous threatest are of the definition. The fact of the luvasion is unquestionable. In addition to the communication of themesal Grant to the Kentucky Legislature, our regular Using correspondent formshoe possible information on the entirest. We also have it from high authority in the city that the news was received yesterday-thus fixes.
